Galerie VIVID

Galerie VIVID, established in 1999 by Saskia Copper and Aad Krol, was one of the first galleries to exhibit contemporary and modern design in the context of both design and art. The gallery's solo exhibitions have presented important designers and artists such as Gerrit Rietveld, Ettore Sottsass, Richard Woods & Sebastian Wrong, Hella Jongerius, Studio Job, Atelier van Lieshout, Richard Hutten, Slothouber & Graatsma and Jaime Hayon. In 2010, the gallery moved to the Red Apple Building, one of Rotterdam's new landmarks.
